Plaintiff/ Appellant

v.

DECISION ON APPEAL

DONALD L. G...
LAW LIBRARY

ROBERT MUNSON,

NOV 28 2003

Defendant/ Appellee

Plaintiff Rent-A-Ride appeals from the District Court (Small Claims) judgment awarding it $300.00 plus costs on its claim of $3,020.50 against the defendant.

Neither party requested a recording of the hearing pursuant to M.R.S.C.P. 6 and therefore no recording was made. The appellant does not contend that the absence of a record of the proceedings in the District Court is for a reason "beyond the control of any party" as that term is used in M.R.Civ.P. 76F(c).

On appeal, the plaintiff asserts that the judgment is against the weight of the evidence.

Without a record, this court is unable to review the correctness of the District Court's finding. "... [T]he appellant has the burden of providing ... a sufficient record that allows adequate consideration of his arguments." Tenny v. Benson, 741 A.2d 454 (Me. 1999).

Therefore the entry is:

Appeal DENIED. Case is remanded to the District Court
