DECISION & ORDER

ROBERT LEE HALL

On August 5, 2009 Defendant filed a Motion for Reconsideration of Ruling concerning a ruling by Justice Crowley on July 24, 2009 ordering that $1,952.00 seized from the Defendant be applied to a restitution obligation imposed in these cases.¹ A hearing on the motion was held on November 13, 2009.

Justice Crowley sentenced the Defendant on June 18, 2009. The record reflects that the Defendant was ordered to pay restitution as a condition of probation. The probation condition ordered payment of $100 per month beginning 90 days after release from incarceration. There was no mention by anyone at the sentencing hearing that $1,952.00 had been seized from the Defendant.

2009 the Defendant filed a pro se motion to return seized property, including the $1,952.00. Defendant's attorney filed the pending motion for reconsideration on August 4, 2009.

The Motion for Reconsideration is granted in part in that the prior order dated July 24, 2009 is vacated because it was issued by error; but the motion is denied in part in that the seized funds will not be returned to the Defendant.²

The restitution order is a condition of probation. The court will treat the motion to apply seized money to payment of restitution as a Motion to Amend Probation pursuant to 17-A M.R.S. § 1202(2). Based on the information provided to the court, the court finds that the Defendant has failed to prove that he does not have the current capacity to pay $1,952.00 as a partial payment of restitution or that payment will create an excessive financial hardship. See 17-A M.R.S. §§ 1325(1)(D) & (4). Moreover, the court concludes that 17-A M.R.S. § 1330(2) does not prevent the court from modifying probation and ordering immediate partial payment of restitution.

Therefore, it is ORDERED that Defendant's probation in the above captioned cases is modified in that he is ordered to immediately pay $1,952.00 as partial payment of restitution and the State may retain the funds currently in its possession as payment. Defendant remains obligated to pay $100 per month in further restitution beginning 90 days after his release from incarceration.

SO ORDERED.
