

STATE OF MAINE
KENNEBEC, SS.

SUPERIOR COURT
CRIMINAL ACTION
Docket No. CR-10-25

REM - KEN - 3/7/2011

STATE OF MAINE

v.

NIXON A. LOUIS,

Defendant

ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR SPEEDY TRIAL AND/OR
MOTION TO DISMISS WITH PREJUDICE

Defendant filed this pending motion with the court on February 25, 2011. Argument was presented to the court by counsel for the defendant and the assistant district attorney on March 7, 2011. On March 4, 2011, the attorney for the State filed a dismissal of the pending indictment against the defendant pursuant to Rule 48(a) of the Maine Rules of Criminal Procedure.

Defendant argues that, despite the State's filing of its motion to dismiss, that the defendant's motion for dismissal with prejudice should still be granted. Defendant contends that the delay, which has already occurred in this case, as well as the subsequent delay, which would likely occur if the defendant were to be re-indicted, creates sufficient prejudice warranting a dismissal of this pending matter with prejudice.

Although the State filed its dismissal pursuant to M.R. Crim. P. 48(a) after the filing of the defendant's motion to dismiss, the court is not persuaded that the State's dismissal becomes ineffective. Rule 48(a) provides broad authority to the attorney for the State to file a written dismissal of an indictment with no limits to the timing of such a filing if the trial has not already commenced. It is not disputed that the trial has not commenced in the pending matter, and thus no issue of jeopardy has been presented. Thus, despite the prior filing (by seven days) of the defendant's motion to dismiss with prejudice, the language of Rule 48(a), as well as the case law addressing this same rule as set forth in State v. Dumont, 552 A.2d 1 (Me. 1988), suggest that the prosecution regarding the case for which a dismissal has been filed pursuant to Rule 48(a) shall terminate upon the filing of such a dismissal.

The court will note that the defendant is not precluded from filing a motion to dismiss any future prosecution should the State seek to pursue such. The court does not, in any way, address the merits of the defendant's motion based upon alleged undue delay or prejudice to him.

Accordingly, the defendant's motion for a speedy trial is deemed moot based upon the filing of the dismissal by the State, and the defendant's motion to dismiss with prejudice is hereby denied.
