Petitioner

v.

ORDER ON PETITION FOR POST-CONVICTION
REVIEW

STATE OF MAINE

The petitioner challenges the use of his conviction for OUI in AUGDC-03-305 in the indictment charging class C OUI in AUGSC-10-442. He argues that he did not validly waive his right to counsel and his right to a jury trial. For the following reason, the petition is granted.

FINDINGS

Attorney Steven Parker's calendar shows that he was the lawyer for the day in the Augusta District Court when the petitioner's plea to OUI was entered on 2/19/03. Attorney Parker's calendar shows further that he was scheduled to be in the Waterville District Court at 1:00 p.m. on 2/19/03. Understandably, Attorney Parker has no recollection of the events of that day.

The petitioner also did not remember everything that occurred on 2/19/03. He did not recall being told about forms to fill out for an attorney and a jury trial. When his name was called, he spoke to the judge. At that time, he had not spoken to the lawyer for the day, who was not present, and the case was continued to the afternoon. The lawyer for the day did not return to the Augusta District Court for the afternoon of 2/19/03.

The petitioner spoke to the judge but cannot recall what the judge said. There is no transcript of the proceedings.

The petitioner also spoke to the Assistant District Attorney. The petitioner does not remember exactly what was said but "it didn't sound good." The petitioner eventually pleaded guilty to the OUI charge.

Based on this record, the court concludes the petitioner never spoke to the lawyer for the day. The court cannot conclude that the petitioner waived his right to counsel and to trial voluntarily, knowingly, and intelligently. State v. Watson, 2006 ME 80, ¶ 15, 900 A.2d 702, 708.

The Petition for Post-Conviction Review is GRANTED. The OUI Conviction in AUGDC-CR-03-305 is stricken from the Indictment in AUGSC-10-442.
