GLEASON, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

ORDER ON MOTION FOR
SUMMARY JUDGMENT

PAULETTE TUTTLE, et al.,

Defendants

Before the court is plaintiffs Kimberly Gleason and Anthony Tuttle's motion for partial summary judgment. For the following reasons, the motion is granted in part and denied in part.

Factual and Procedural Background

The Certificate of Limited Partnership for the Tuthill Family Limited Partnership (TFLP) was filed on October 1, 1998. Pls.' SUMF, ¶ 1. Kenneth Tuttle was named as the sole general partner. Pls.' SUMF, ¶ 2. The original partnership agreement cannot be found. Pls.' SUMF, ¶ 8; TFLP's SOMF, ¶ 8.

The plaintiffs claim that they are limited partners in TFLP and support their claim through testimony and through partnership documents that indicate that they, along with their brother, Nathan Tuttle, are limited partners. Pls.' SUMF, ¶ 5; Pls.' Rep. to TFLP's SAMF, ¶ 22. The defendants assert that the only limited partners are three trusts created as part of Kenneth and Paulette Tuttle's estate plan. Pl.'s SUMF, ¶ 5; TFLP's Rep. to Pls.' SUMF, ¶ 5; TFLP's SAMF, ¶¶ 2-3.

In June 2002, Kenneth Tuttle died.¹ Pls.' SUMF, ¶ 6. Paulette Tuttle was appointed as Personal Representative of the Estate on September 10, 2002. TFLP's SAMF, ¶ 15; Pls.' Rep. to TFLP SAMF, ¶ 15. On September 8, 2008, Attorney Susan Hunter replaced Paulette Tuttle as Personal Representative. TFLP SAMF, ¶ 16; Pls.' Rep. to TFLP SAMF, ¶ 16.

Standard of Review

Summary Judgment is appropriate when there exist no genuine issues of material fact and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. M.R.Civ.P 56(c). A material fact is one that has "the potential to affect the outcome of the suit." Burzdel v. Sobus, 2000 ME 85, ¶ 6, 750 A.2d 573, 575. A genuine issue of material fact exists "when sufficient evidence requires a fact-finder to choose between competing versions of the truth at trial." Parrish v. Wright, 2003 ME 90, ¶ 8, 828 A.2d 778, 781. Facts are reviewed "in the light most favorable to the nonmoving party." Lightfoot v. Sch. Admin Dist. No. 35, 2003 ME 24, ¶ 6, 816 A.2d 63, 65.

Discussion

1. Limited Partners

The plaintiffs argue they are limited partners in the TFLP. The defendants' support for their assertion that the plaintiffs are not partners is a copy of the first two pages of what may be the original partnership agreement, which does not include plaintiffs in its recitation of limited partners. The plaintiffs challenge the admissibility of this document and argue that it is not properly authenticated.²

¹ The parties agree that this event had the legal effect of dissolving the partnership, despite the fact that the partnership was not actually wound up by the parties at that time.

² Plaintiffs have further argued that the two pages also contain hearsay and violates the best evidence rule, and that even if the document is admissible, it is so incomplete and against the weight of the evidence that it fails to create a genuine issue of fact.

“The requirement of authentication or identification as a condition precedent to admissibility is satisfied by evidence sufficient to support a finding that the matter in question is what its proponent claims.” M.R.Evid. 901(a). The defendants argue that the Agreement can be authenticated because plaintiff Kimberly Gleason testified that she believes the two pages are a copy of part of the original document. TFLP’s SAMF, ¶ 8. The defendants further argue that the Agreement can be authenticated by comparison with other documents. Id., ¶¶ 4-5.

Neither the testimony of plaintiff Kimberly Gleason nor other documents provide the required evidence of authenticity of the documents. The defendants have failed to raise a genuine issue of material fact regarding the plaintiffs’ status as limited partners. The plaintiffs withdrew as limited partners by letter received by Paulette Tuttle on December 22, 2008. Pls.’ SUMF, ¶ 22; TFLP Rep. to Pls.’ SUMF, ¶ 22.

2. Indispensable Party

The defendants argue that the plaintiffs’ brother, Nathan Tuttle, is an indispensable party under M.R.Civ.P. 19. Nathan Tuttle is a limited partner in the TFLP. The defendants argue that dissolution could significantly impact Nathan Tuttle and his position on partnership issue is unclear. The plaintiffs argue that Nathan Tuttle is not liable for partnership debts and is not entitled to participate in management as a limited partner. Because the partnership has already been dissolved, the person who ultimately winds up the partnership’s affairs will be required to make distributions to all limited partners, including Nathan Tuttle, pursuant to 31 M.R.S. § 484³.

³ This is a reference to the Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act (“the old Act”), which was superseded by the Maine Uniform Limited Partnership Act (“the new Act”). The savings clause of the new Act states that actions commenced prior to the effective date of the new Act will be governed by the old Act. 31 M.R.S. § 1454. Because this action was filed before the effective date of July 1, 2008, the old Act applies to the issues in this case.

In Ocwen Federal Bank, FSB v. Gile, the Law Court held that the bank could not foreclose on a property without joining the town as a party because the town claimed an ownership interest in the property. Ocwen, 2001 ME 120, ¶ 21, 777 A.2d 275, 282. The Court determined that Rule 19(a) serves to protect unjoined but interested parties and active parties. Id. at ¶ 14, 777 A.2d at 280. Distributions to all limited partners will be made pursuant to 31 M.R.S. § 484.⁴ Nathan Tuttle is not a participant in management of the partnership business. 31 M.R.S. § 433. He is not an indispensable party to this lawsuit.

3. Distributions

Section 484 provides that the partnership assets must be distributed first to creditors, second to partners in satisfaction of interim or withdrawal distributions, and finally, unless otherwise provided in the partnership agreement, to partners “(1) [f]or the return of their contributions; and (2) [r]especting their partnership interests, in the proportions in which the partners share in distributions.” 31 M.R.S. § 484. A “distribution” is defined as “the transfer of property by a limited partnership to one or more of its partners in the capacity as a partner.” 31 M.R.S. § 402(3). The plaintiffs argue they are each entitled to 25% based on the fact that the partnership’s records allocated 25% of the profits and losses to each of the three children.

The defendants argue that plaintiffs are not entitled to any distributions because they never contributed anything of value to the partnership. 31 M.R.S. § 484(C)(1). Although the original agreement is not in the record, the business records of the partnership indicate that each of the plaintiffs owns 25% of the partnership and the profit and loss distributions were allocated 25% to each plaintiff. TFLP SAMF, ¶ 10; Pls.' Rep. to TFLP SAMF, ¶ 10. 31 M.R.S. § 484(C)(2). Further, although there may not have been an established formula for the distributions, there is no issue of fact on this record that distributions were made. TFLP's SAMF, ¶¶ 10, 17; Pls.' Rep. TFLP's SDMF, ¶¶ 10, 17.

4. Wind Up/Removal

The plaintiffs argue they should be permitted to conduct the wind up of TFLP. Section 483(1) provides: “[u]nless otherwise provided in the partnership agreement, the general partners . . . or, if none, the limited partners . . . may wind up the limited partnership’s affairs[.]” 31 M.R.S. § 483(1). The sole general partner, Kenneth Tuttle, is deceased.

The defendants argue that because Paulette Tuttle was the personal representative of Kenneth Tuttle until late December 2008 and Attorney Susan Hunter has continued to serve as personal representative to date, Paulette Tuttle and Susan Hunter the right to wind up the partnership. Section 475 provides that an administrator or legal representative of a deceased partner’s estate may exercise all rights of the general partner “for the purpose of settling the partner’s estate or administering the partner’s property.” 31 M.R.S. § 475.

Section 483 specifically provides that in the absence of a general partner,⁵ the limited partners may wind up the limited partnership's affairs. Section 483 makes no special provision for a successor in interest or personal representative; it refers to a

⁵ A “limited partnership” is required to have one or more general partners and one or more limited partners. 31 M.R.S. 402(8).

“general partner.” Section 475 addresses settling the partner's estate or administering his property.

On this record, there is agreement that the plaintiffs withdrew from the TFLP by letter to Paulette Tuttle on December 22, 2008. 31 M.R.S. § 483(1); as of September Pls.' SUMF, ¶ 22; TFLP's Rep. to Pls.' SUMF, ¶ 22; Personal Representative's Rep. to Pls.' SUMF, ¶ 22.

The entry is

The Plaintiffs' Motion for Summary Judgment is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part. Judgment is entered in favor of the Plaintiffs Kimberly Gleason and Anthony Tuttle and against the Defendants Tuttle Family Limited Partnership and Paulette Tuttle on Counts III and VII as follows: (1) the Tuttle Family Limited Partnership is Dissolved as of September 3, 2008; (2) Defendant Paulette Tuttle is Removed as General Partner of the Tuttle Family Limited Partnership; and (3) the Plaintiffs have withdrawn as Limited Partners of the Tuttle Family Limited Partnership.

The Plaintiffs' Requests that they wind up the Tuttle Family Limited Partnership's Affairs is DENIED.

By agreement of the parties, the status quo of the Tuttle Family Limited Partnership will be maintained until further order of court.

If the parties cannot agree on a liquidating trustee, each party will file by November 5, 2009 the name of a proposed trustee and a brief argument in support of the proposed trustee.
