

STATE OF MAINE

YORK, ss.

LUCY J. BERUBE,

Petitioner

SUPERIOR COURT
CIVIL ACTION
DOCKET NO. AP-01-049
PAF-YOR - 2/4/2002

v.

ORDER

STATE OF MAINE,
UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE COMMISSION,

Respondent

Lucy Berube has appealed from a decision of the Maine Unemployment Insurance Commission finding that she was disqualified from the receipt of benefits because she left her regular employment voluntarily without good cause attributable to that employment. See 26 M.R.S.A. §1193(1)(A).

Judicial review of decisions of the Commission is limited. Review by a court is restricted to whether the Commission correctly applied the law and whether its factual findings are supported by any competent evidence. Decisions are not to be disturbed unless the record compels a contrary result. See McPherson v. Unemployment Insurance Commission, 1998 ME 177, ¶6, 714 A.2d 818, 820.

The Commission was free to choose between conflicting views of the relationship between Ms. Berube and her employer and to choose between conflicting explanations of the reasons behind and necessity of Ms. Berube's decision to quit her job.

I can find no legal error in the Commission's decision and its factual determinations are supported by competent evidence.
